Fraternity houses are expected to have twenty guests apiece or more.

BAKER ENDORSES ARMY REORGANIZATION

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Jan. 21.—The army reorganization bill drafted by the Senate Military Subcommittee was endorsed today by Secretary Baker who appeared before the full committee. "This is the most statesmanlike attempt to reorganize the army ever made in any country and is an exceedingly able and effective piece of legislation," he said. The measure provides for compulsory military training and the formation of one big army to be divided into a citizens reserve army, the regular army consisting of 280,000 men and the national guard. While disclaiming any "personal interest or almost none," Secretary Baker opposed provisions which would make Gen. Pershing chief of staff. "These provisions would in effect abolish the war department as long as Gen. Pershing was on the active list," the Secretary said, adding that the President and the Secretary of War should be permitted to name the chief of staff in view of the fact that he is the military officer and the man upon whom both depend for carrying out the military policy.

6000 ILL- WITH FLU IN CHICAGO

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Jan. 21.—More than 6000 persons in Chicago today were ill with influenza, but city health officials expressed the opinion that the epidemic was near its climax. Pneumonia was also epidemic. Influenza continued to appear in a mild form with a resultant low death rate. During the last 24 hours new cases were reported at the rate of more than 100 an hour, the greatest number of any single day of the epidemic. The winter being surpassed yesterday when 2514 new cases were reported. There were 36 deaths reported yesterday, however, against 214 on the day the influenza attack reached its peak a year ago. Pneumonia dropped from 352 new cases reported Monday to 297 yesterday, but claimed a toll of 57 deaths. A shortage of trained nurses handicapped the efforts of the health authorities to control the influenza situation.

NORTHERN ITALY IN GRIP R. R. STRIKE

Troops Guard Trains With Machine Guns

R. R. STRIKE IN ITALY IMPROVES

(By Associated Press)
Rome, Jan. 21.—Improvement was reported today in the situation caused by the extensive strike of the Italian railway men which has affected large sections of the country since early this week. It was announced that a sufficient number of employees had reported for work this morning to make it unnecessary to have recourse to the military in order to move trains. Incoming trains are slightly delayed but out-going trains were despatched on schedule time.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Jan. 21.—Northern and Central Italy are in the grip of a general railway strike, but southern Italy is not so seriously affected, according to the Turin correspondent of the Petit Parisien. The Italian government was able to run a few trains over the principal lines yesterday, the trains being heavily guarded with troops armed with machine guns. Martial law is enforced in the principal cities of the country, the streets of which are patrolled by cavalry and are under the guns of artillery units. Stores, theatres and all places of business are ordered to close at 8.00 in the evening and everyone is forbidden to use automobiles or bicycles. Police authorities have ordered the magazines of all automobiles confiscated to prevent the strikers using these machines. Relative calm prevailed yesterday. The only disorders reported from Genoa where shots were fired at a train.

Poor Fuel is Partly to Blame

When your motor heats up, do you blame the lubricating system, tight piston rings, the spark too much retarded, poor water circulation in the cooling system? Poor fuel often has a lot to do with it. Low-grade gasoline burns slowly and incompletely, producing high heat—deposits carbon on the piston heads and in the combustion chamber which retains the heat, and prevents quick radiation. The remedy? High-quality, quick-burning gasoline that is uniform in its vaporizing and ignition characteristics, that burns up completely and delivers maximum power in all weathers—SOCONY Motor Gasoline. Standardize on SOCONY and you will avoid lots of engine trouble and secure big mileage per gallon of gasoline.

Unusual Value—In Tires for Small Cars

Not only is characteristic Goodyear merit conspicuous in Goodyear Tires for small cars but ordinarily the first cost is found to be not greater than that of other tires; often it is actually less.

The combination of unusual value in first cost and very low final cost, of course, is a result of Goodyear experience, expertness and care employed as insistently in the making of 30x3, 30x3½ and 31x4-inch tires as it is in the construction of the famous Goodyear Cord Tires used on the highest-priced automobiles.

For this reason more cars using these small sizes were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind. Get this unusual tire value to enjoy on your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Get these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at this station:

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread..... $20.00

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water—$3.90 proof bag.

TO RE-PARTION NEW HAMPSHIRE REPRESENTATION

Resolution Presented to the Constitutional Convention.

Concord, Jan. 20.—A resolution providing for a new apportionment in the House of Representatives, under which the basis of representation in the lower branch of the Legislature would be changed from population to the number of votes cast, at the preceding presidential election, was introduced today before the convention to revise the constitution.

The Legislature would determine the unit of voters upon which such representation would be established. As now constituted, it is based upon one representative for 600 population and one for each additional 1200.

With the supposition that women will soon have the vote, the proposed amendment leaves it to the Legislature to say whether the basis of representation shall be one for 150 votes, 250 or 300 cast in the preceding presidential election.

A resolution to revise the constitution as regards the taxation of standing wood and timber was placed before the convention.

WANT 4 P. C. JERSEY LIMIT

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 21.—Soon after the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Edwards were concluded yesterday, a prohibition enforcement bill, designed to conform with the Governor's contention that the several states have concurrent power to legislate upon the enforcement of the federal prohibition amendment, was introduced in the Assembly. The measure defines "intoxicating liquors" as those in excess of 4 per cent alcoholic content.

WANTS OPINION ON DRY LAWS

Portland, Me., Jan. 21.—Sheriff King Graham has requested Governor Milliken to ask for an opinion from the Attorney General whether the Maine prohibition law is superseded by the federal law, with a view, if the opinion is in the affirmative, to permitting the sale of whiskey as a medicine by drug stores under the federal regulations. Under the state law the sale of beverage alcohol for any purpose was forbidden. The sheriff is of the opinion that such permission should be granted if legal.

The Need of Thrift.

This is Thrift Week throughout the United States and the people are called upon to practice the great virtue of thrift. As one means of doing this they are advised to buy thrift stamps and war savings stamps, but it is also recommended that thrift be practiced in every possible way, for the good of the individual and the good of the country.

In his Thrift Week proclamation Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts calls attention to some of the reasons why the people of the state and nation should endeavor to save, not only during this week, but as a permanent policy. He points out that this is necessary in order to discharge the obligations of the war and to provide additional capital with which to meet the demands for greater production. Such a practice, he says, will strengthen the character of our citizenship and prove highly beneficial individually and collectively.

All will readily perceive the correctness of this view, but if anything substantial is to be accomplished toward engraving the habit of thrift upon the people the effort must not be restricted to a single week. A Thrift Week may serve a useful purpose in concentrating attention on the subject, but a seven days' "spasm" followed by a return to extravagance and forgetfulness of the need of thrift will amount to little compared to what can and will be accomplished if the people become earnest and persistent in the matter of saving.

This Thrift Week is of special interest in Massachusetts, as its opening was the anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, a native of that state, one of the country's most noted men and a lifelong exponent of the homely habit of thrift. But we are far removed from the days of Franklin and the habits that prevailed in the age in which he lived. We have come upon an era of extravagance such as was never before witnessed in this or any other country. The country has grown rich. Money is plentiful, work is abundant and wages are high, and those who are earning them are, to too great an extent, letting their earnings go about as fast as they come.

Under the conditions that exist it is not necessary for any one to be niggardly, but there might well be more care in the matter of expenditures than there is. Every worker should be saving something against the needs of old age or a period when times may not be as flush as they are now. That there will be such a period sooner or later is the belief of men of ripe business experience, and, while there is no ground for pessimism, good judgment dictates that it will be well for those who are sharing the present prosperity to keep an eye to "windward" and lay part of their earnings by for use when money may not be as plentiful as it is now.

It is to be hoped that Thrift Week may serve to call attention to these simple facts and rouse the people to the propriety of exercising reasonable caution at a time when conditions are such as to promote forgetfulness of things which should never be forgotten.

The state weather bureau man says there has been no appreciable change in the climate of New Hampshire in the last fifty years. And yet most old-timers cannot escape the conviction that winters are not just exactly what they used to be when they were boys.

Boston has a new postmaster at last. The appointee is Roland M. Baker, a successful business man who is well known in this city; where he was formerly engaged in the tannery and shoe manufacturing business. After all the pulling and hauling he was appointed strictly under the rules of the civil service and it is believed he will meet all the requirements of the responsible position in which he has been placed.

Extremely regrettable is the death of President MacLaurin of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology so soon after the close of a most successful financial drive in behalf of the institution. Dr. MacLaurin stood high among the country's leading educators and was yet in the prime of life. His death is a serious loss to the Institute and to the cause of American education.

The state tax of Massachusetts will be increased $1,000,000 this year, making the total $12,000,000. But what's a million dollars more or less in times like these?

Nothing more appropriate can be placed at the foot of the inscription to John Barleycorn than the old, familiar line, "Gone but not forgotten."

That republics are ungrateful is freshly emphasized by the defeat of Premier Clemenceau, the "grand old man" of France, in his run for the presidential nomination.

In spite of Postmaster Burleson's economy nearly $461,000,000 is called for to maintain the department in 1921. Increased salaries are partly responsible for the size of the budget.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

How Florida Grows

(From the Florida Times-Union)
Scarcely a new town that has sprung into existence in the past ten years will help to swell the State population in the Government census now being taken. Several of these towns have from one to five, thousands of farms have been developed in their vicinities.

Paying the Price

(From the Los Angeles Times)
It will take $17 apiece, from every man, woman and child, to cover the Government expenses this year. Really a man has to be something of an optimist to be sure that he is getting the worth of his money. It would cheer a lot to see some officials trying to save instead of seeing how much they could spend.

The Value of a Surplus

(From the San Francisco Chronicle)
The value of the fruit crop of the State is estimated at fifty millions. How much would it be worth if we had to consume it all ourselves? There is a riddle for the grower against profligacy to solve. If he commences guessing he will probably hit upon the answer: We wouldn't raise a surplus if there were no outlet for it at a profit and further guessing would lead him to conclude that unless the orchardist saw a chance to make a profit on his product he would cease producing.

A Flank Situation

(From the Springfield Republican)
There has been strange inattention on the part of the public to the situation pointed out by Senator Gore of Oklahoma in his proposal of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States restricting the use of the ballot to citizens. Ten or a dozen States, it is said, permit aliens who have only their first citizenship papers to vote. This is in sharp contrast with the position taken by the Federal Government in its round-up of alleged "reds" that such papers are no protection against summary arrest and deportation. The anomaly means that persons who have no right to residence in the United States have a right to make the laws governing those who have the right. It means that in the States referred to the literally alien vote might turn an election; which is the reason perhaps that the law as it stands suits the purposes of some politicians.

All the Truth About the Navy

(From the New York Sun)
Administration leaders and organs that declare Admiral Sims should have suppressed his navy charges because if they are true they give dangerous information to our foreign enemies know better. They know that if things are as bad with our navy as Admiral Sims says they are the naval officers of every other sea power already have full information of the facts. They know that nobody but ourselves has been fooled about it. They know that the worst business, the most deadly business, any Government can be in is to try to fool its own people about any weakness in their national armor. They know that the worst disservice Admiral Sims or anybody can do his country is to try to cover up such a danger as a disorganized, demoralized, decayed navy, if such it be. They know that when or if anything is actually wrong with our navy the highest duty of Admiral Sims or of any responsible person prepared to back up his charges with proof is not to conceal such a national peril but to expose it so that the wrong may be corrected and the peril averted.

We hold no brief for Admiral Sims. We shall reserve judgment as to Secretary Daniels and the whole Department until Admiral Sims' full case is in with all the facts that have any bearing on the case brought to light. The American people ought to reserve their judgment. But everybody should want all the facts to come out.

That we have a navy which has grown rotten so soon after its splendid war service seems incredible. But if it is rotten we want to know the truth. We want to know it so as to make our navy sound again. And the best way to the quickest way, the surest way to make it sound again will be to know what must be done about it and then get on the job.

Schools Must be Supported

(From the Houston Post)
A few more years of such an exodus of teachers from the school rooms and the public school system of America will be a ruin.

The only remedy for this situation is to educate public opinion on the question of better pay for teachers. Colleges may go out and collect endowment funds from friends, the proceeds of which may be used to increase salaries of professors, and they receive large gifts from the nation's masters of wealth, but the funds for the maintenance of the public schools must come direct from the people themselves hence the necessity of going direct to the people with this problem, and educating their aid in solving it.

The public school affords the greatest opportunity for advancement and educational improvement that the common people of the country have. Without it they will sink back into the ignorance which characterized them before the advent of the system of public education. The people realize what the public school means to them and to the continuance of democratic institutions.

THE EXEMPTION FOR DEPENDENTS

In order to clear away misunderstandings as to what constitutes dependency, in connection with the additional exemption granted Income Tax payers, Collector of Internal Revenue Seth W. Jones, Portsmouth, N. H., today gave out the following state ment:

"For 1919 a taxpayer may be allowed a credit of $200 for each person for whom he is the chief support. But it must be remembered that he can claim this additional exemption only with respect to children seventeen years of age or younger and persons mentally defective, cripples, and persons old enough to be without question physically incapacitated for self support. If the taxpayer contributes to the support of some relative or other person who is over seventeen years of age, in fair health, and still active, he cannot be allowed the additional $200 even if he is furnishing the chief support."

The very different requirements of the two exemptions ("head of a family" additional $1000; "dependent" additional $200) must not be confused. To be the "head of a family" the person whom he supports must be a close relative, must live with him, and he must be such relative's sole support. To be entitled to exemption for "dependent" the person whom he supports does not have to be a relative, but can be any child or any cripple or defective; the child or incapacitated adult may live anywhere; and it is necessary that he furnish only more than half of the support.

The chief difference is that for "head of a family" the restriction is to close relatives; the evident object of which is to promote the home; for "dependent" the restriction is to children under eighteen years of age or persons mentally or physically defective; the object of which is to recognize material assistance given to those who cannot help themselves.

A son, who has left home, but who still sends to his mother more than half of her support with enough regularly that she may depend upon it, can be allowed the additional $200; provided however that the mother has become sufficiently aged to be without doubt physically incapacitated for self support. Otherwise, the amount contributed must be considered as a gift, not deductible as an expense and not entitling him to the additional exemption regardless of amount.

A father may claim the exemption for every child under eighteen years of age. But if one of his children receives from some estate or otherwise sufficient distributed income to provide for the expense of his support in the station of life in which he is placed, the father cannot claim the exemption with respect to that child, or, although the child is legally dependent upon him he is in fact financially independent.

A single person is the head of a family if by December 31st he had become the sole support of close relatives (by blood, marriage, or adoption) living in the same house with him and looked upon by them to exercise a greater or less amount of control in the matters affecting the support and maintenance of the household.

The phrase "sole support" is here used in the sense that there is no other person to whom the dependents are looking for a substantial portion of their support. There may be another source of income (such as interest on bonds, dividends on stocks, pension) which, if meagre enough to still leave the recipient dependent, should not interfere with the claim for exemption. Such meagre income of dependents, as well as the inconsequential profit on the board of any self-supporting member of the household, must however be included in the return of the head of the household.

But a division of responsibility will in every case exclude the parties from the claim for the additional exemption. Article 302 of Regulations, 36 defines a head of a family as "a person who actually supports, and maintains a one household or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation."

Once the existence of the fact that a taxpayer is the principal cause for the creation or maintenance of a home is established it cannot be destroyed by his mere temporary or unavoidable absence from it. If a father is left with a young child to whom he cannot give the proper attention himself, and he places this child with relatives or somewhere, he should still be considered the head of a family even if yet another force of circumstances would oblige him to live elsewhere; provided he still exercised fatherly control over the well-being, education, and that feelings of the child, and did not (while) furnishing the support) allow the child to become a virtual orphan, however, without necessity the dependent continuously makes his home elsewhere, his benefactor is not the head of a family, irrespective of the question of support.

What Sims Thinks About Medals

Admiral Sims in the hearing before the Senate Naval Committee said: "The foreign governments would bestow medals on a representative of the United States even if they thought he was a 'dub.' ## Young Kennebunk Lovers Skip Out and Marry at Dover.

With their return to Kennebunk yesterday, it was learned that, in spite of the determined opposition and vigilance of the mother of the girl bride, Raymond E. Towne and Miss Gladys Tomlinson, both of that town, were married in Dover, Saturday evening.

Towne is but 19 and his wife two years younger. They had been engaged for a year, but, on account of the attitude of the girl's mother, she had not dared to wear her engagement ring. But opposition bred constancy and, a week ago, they stole away to Dover, making application for a marriage license.

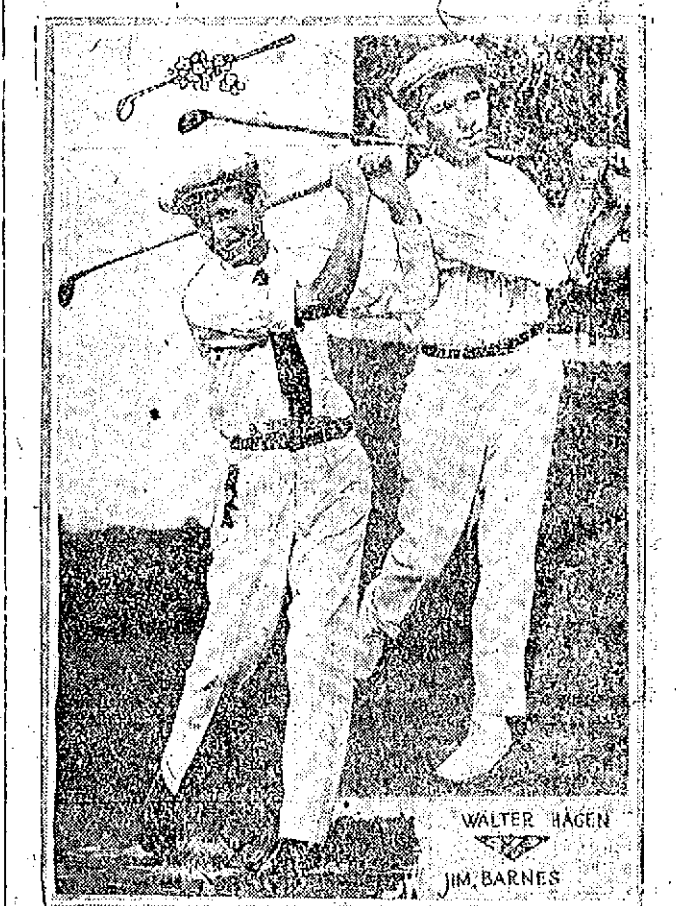

The requisite five days having elapsed, on Saturday, under pretense that they were going to a basket ball game in Sanford, they again traveled to Dover, where they were married by Rev. A. L. Snell at the Baptist parsonage.

The first intimation of the elopement to either family was when the newly married couple visited the home of the groom's brother in Dover and asked him to putty their families. They are staying with Mr. Towne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Towne, for a time. Mrs. Towne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tomlinson. Her father was killed in France while fighting with the Canadian forces as a member of the famous Canadian Black Watch.

WHATSOEVER A MAN SOWETH

As the setting sun begins to cast its shadows over the western horizon let us turn our thoughts to those heroes who are sleeping peacefully in the southern hills of France.

Did they die in vain? Or do they still live in the hearts of civilized humanity, pointing the way to that small still voice which guides us in our intercourse with one another?

Have we needlessly crucified those brave American boys on the German cross of selfish ambition, or with their sacrifice serve to reach us that right which might, and that the eternal law of compensation is always and everywhere in operation, bringing back to us exactly that which we create in our thoughts and deeds?

Let us get aside this day as a day of sober reflection; let us turn philosopher and analyst on this one day each year, earnestly examining the fruits of our own experience to see if it does not offer ample proof that "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

IN MEMORIAM.

Arthur T. Smith.

Arthur T. Smith, whose death was announced yesterday in the Herald, was one of the best known of our citizens, and the news of his death was heard with much regret.

Mr. Smith was born in the town of Bridgewater, this state, and while still a child his parents moved to Fremont, and here he made his home until he moved to this city in 1899. Mr. Smith was educated in the public schools and New Hampton Literary Institute, New Hampton, N. H., and became one of the leading citizens of the town. He held many of the town offices and in 1897 represented the town of Fremont in the State Legislature.

At the opening of the Portsmouth electric railroad he took up his residence in this city and for nearly 20 years was a conductor on the local electric road, much of this time being on the Phalaris route. As a conductor he was one of the most popular on the road as he was untiring in his efforts to assist the infirm and aged and mothers with little children in getting in and out of the cars. For ten years he ran on the North Hampton line during the summer season, when he made a host of friends, especially among the summer residents, by his kindly disposition and thoughtfulness for others. He resigned from the electric road in April, 1918, on account of failing health and later accepted a position as night watchman with the Morley Station Co.

Mr. Smith was a member of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M., of Queen Esther Chapter, No. 13, O. E. S., of Kappa, N. H., Pioneer Lodge, K. of P., of Newmarket. He is survived by his wife and a son, Fleet Lieut. Arthur L. Smith, Coast Artillery Corps, now stationed at Fort Andrews, Boston Harbor, and his father, aged 86 years, who resides in his home at Brentwood.

Mr. Smith was devoted to his family and home, a kind friend and neighbor and had the esteem of the entire community.

WAITED IN THE GOLD FOR HOURS

On Monday evening when the Herald press met with an accident and delayed the sale of the papers, many hundreds of people left on the late afternoon cars for New York and other places, greatly disappointed, after vainly trying to buy a copy of Portsmouth's live newspaper. Many others waited on the streets, although it was extremely cold and the first bunch of Herald's put on sale disappeared in a very few minutes.

KEEPING FAITH IN SHOES

For more than two years shoes have been constantly advancing in price and according to latest reports the end is not yet. Like everyone else in any kind of business shoe retailers have been accused of profiteering, but A STUDY OF FACTS, except in isolated cases, has demonstrated otherwise. Rather, on the other hand, the shoe dealer has made a smaller percentage of gross profit.

It has been no "cinch" doing business; replacement prices have been so great that the dealer's profit has been tied in merchandise, creating a tendency on the part of some merchants to cheapen their lines instead of keeping up to standard. But the fact remains that you can't buy good shoes the same as you have been wearing, at the prices of a year ago.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE

During the past two years we have kept up the quality of our merchandise, giving you the same good grade that you have had in the past. We have not advanced prices until forced to do so, in fact when taking the cost of doing business into consideration, we have sold many shoes at less than cost to us. Notably, in boys', children's and men's working shoes has this been the case.

WHAT WE ARE GOING TO DO

Unless something totally unforeseen occurs we are going to give you the same good merchandise that you have had before. We are going to base our profit as low as is consistent with sound business methods, believing that in these days of high prices that a low margin of profit will work out to our own advantage as well as to our customers. With hope of better deliveries of shoes for the coming season we shall endeavor to give better service than ever before. We solicit your patronage on a basis of good merchandise, fair profits and good service.

LOCAL LEGION HOLD BUSY SESSION

A lengthy meeting of the Frank D. Broom Post American Legion was held on Tuesday evening with Commander Waldron presiding. The committee in charge of the minstrel show were very enthusiastic in their reports of the progress made and they promise a big success.

It was voted to make application to Atty. General Howard asking for the use of the State Army for basketball and other athletic sports.

There was some discussion relative to the Post having a band but no definite action was taken. Mr. Philip H. Sanderson was appointed publicity representative for the Post and he will have charge of the publicity and advertising for the Minstrel show.

IRISH BONDS MEET WITH READY SALE

The subscriptions for the Irish public bonds, the drive for which is on this week in this city, are coming in very well and the local committee at a meeting on Tuesday evening reported fine progress. The quota is set at $10,000 and nearly half of this was secured in the opening night, and in the first two days of the week at least $2,000 have been taken. The committee while they did not have the figures available were confident that they were well over $5,000 and with many of the committee still to be heard from and four more days to work in.

SCHOOL CENSUS SHOWS 3051 IN SCHOOLS HERE

The school census for 1919 may give some lead on the total population that the government census now being taken will show for Portsmouth. The total number of children between the ages of 5 and 16 years of age were, 2706. Total number of children in school under five and over 16 years, 296. Total number of non residents attending the schools 80 making a grand total of school children of 3051.

This is a big increase over last year.

MANY IN COSTUME AT MASKED BALL

There was a large number of dancers in costume at the annual Masquerade ball at the P. O. hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of W. H. Dow. There were some very striking costumes and the grand march was a feature. There was good music and a general good time.

CHAMPION MIKE O'DOWD STOPS MURPHY IN THIRD

Boston, Jan. 20.—Mike O'Dowd, world's middleweight champion, never had an easier match to win than he did in Mechanical Building last night when he stopped "Stockyard" Tommy Murphy of Chicago in three rounds.

No one expected Murphy would defeat O'Dowd, but some of the fans figured that he might give him some trouble in a fight.

GOOD BOXING CARD FOR TONIGHT

The Belfast A. C. will stage their second boxing show here this evening, when they will present a card, which will have special local interest and still be classy enough to give the fans a good show.

They have for their feature bout a twelve round battle between Duddy Kroll of Portland, the soldier boxer and Young Gaurin of Somersworth, who has been seen here. Kroll is going strong and a short time ago knocked out Art Williams of Boston. Gaurin is a hard lad to beat and the affair promises to be a warm session.

For the second time Donnie Ryan of the Atlantic City who is giving every indication of a fighter, will meet Young Chunks of Dover, a lad who is willing and has had plenty of experience.

In the preliminary Joe Pete of the Navy Yard will meet Kid Damsel of Dover, and it will be a good opener.

TRAP SHOOTERS TO BE BUSY SATURDAY

There is to be a trap shoot at the Country Club on Saturday and a fifty bird event will be staged. The road in to the club and into the shooting lodge will be broken out so that automobiles may be used and the road kept open all during the winter. The club is now making preliminary plans for a big shoot at the range on Washington's birthday, which this year will be observed on a Monday.

AL NELSON TO BOX AT MANCHESTER

Manchester, Jan. 20.—The popular local Dane will make his first appearance in his home town in three years when he collides with Joe Farren in the first of the double windup card of the Atlas club at the Academy on Thursday evening. Nelson is in tip-top condition and confident of treating his local admirers to a big surprise.

Al was going big in the mitt game until he bumped into a wall by Art Magill at Boston recently and went down and out. Since then he has opened another campaign and as a starter won from Ernest McIntyre at Houlton, Me., last week.

CONCORD LEGION TEAM WINS FROM LACONIA

Concord, Jan. 20.—The Concord American Legion team defeated the fast Laconia five here tonight, the score being 91-26.

LOOKING THEM OVER WITH the SPORT FAN

London as if Henry Cragen's basketball team is in for a tough going next Saturday evening with the fast Rochester quintet. The Dover outfit got the surprise of their lives on Tuesday evening when Rochester handed them a beautiful trimming, the score at the finish standing 24-8. This leaves the standing in the series between these two teams two to one in favor of the Rochester boys. At the start of the basketball season Dover was lucky enough to put up a record of 9 straight wins and about every man, woman and child in the Cushman City seemed to have the idea that Dover had the only basketball quintet in New England. The Rochester bunch is fast and the team is made up wholly of "imported" players, three being from various star outfits from Boston and vicinity. If Manager Cragen's five hangs a defeat on Rochester, the basketball fans of this city need have little fear of the ability of the Portsmouth team to more than hold its own with any of the star aggregations that will be seen here during the remainder of the season.

Duddy Kroll, the soldier boxer of Portland, Me., who boxes Young Gaurin of Somersworth before the Belfast A. C. at Freeman's hall tonight, arrived in this city Tuesday noon, and judging from his appearance, looks fully capable of living up to all the good things said about him. Duddy has been boxing professionally for the past two years and in all that time has never been knocked out and has lost but two decisions, Young Gaurin, who will oppose Kroll, is a boy of considerable experience and demonstrated when he knocked out Tommy Riley at Biddeford some weeks ago, that he is fully capable of making any of the fast welters hustle. Gaurin will be accompanied to this city by a large number of Somersworth and Dover rooters.

It surely is interesting and amusing to listen to various wrestling fans explain how Pinky Gardner was injured in his bout with Bill Dryden. Some argue that Dryden threw Pinky out of the ring and that the latter hit on his head on the floor; others say that Gardner was knocked cold before he landed on the floor, due to the fact that he landed on his head on the mat and then fell from the ring to the floor below. The latter seems to be the proper explanation of the incident as vouched for by those sitting close to the ring.

The most pleasing bit of news to come from New Hampshire college in many weeks so far as the football fans of this section are concerned, was disclosed last week when officials of the State college notified those in charge of the post at Dover that a number of the big games may be played there next year due to the fact that the new football field to be constructed at Durham will not be finished in time.

Waldo Ketonen, champion middleweight wrestler will perform at Lewiston, Me., Friday night. His opponent has not been selected as yet, but will probably be Mike Voket or John Tilden.

ROCHESTER DEFEATED DOVER

Rochester gave the Dover basketball team a good beating at Rochester on Tuesday evening by the score of 24 to 8. The game was one of a series between Dover and Rochester and if in case of a tie, there is some talk of playing the deciding game in this city. Fred Hicks of the Portsmouth professional team played a fine game at center for Rochester.

Rochester will play the Portsmouth professional team here on Saturday evening and a hard game is expected. Manager Cragen will play Costello and the same line up as last week, and Hicks who has been playing with Rochester will play with Portsmouth. Rochester has a greatly strengthened team and outside of the Springfield team, will be the strongest team that has shown here.

Manager Cragen may cancel his game with Dover unless they pick up as they have been losing games pretty regularly of late.

TO PLAY NASHUA SATURDAY

The High school basketball team will play the Nashua on Saturday evening. The locals have won the greater number of their games and are now coming to a part of their schedule which brings them against the strongest team in this state. They are showing a good improvement and with a little more attention to passing and floor position work they will be able to hold their own against the best school team.

ON occasion. One of these occasions was when his faithful servant allowed his hand to slip—whereupon the General arose in his wrath and finished the job himself; for the Father of our Country was very properly fond of a good, clean shave.

And in his simple shaving kit may still be seen his equally simple razors. While their model is many hundred years old, they have never been bettered in heft, or shearing width, or right shaving angle on the face.

At such times when his old servant failed him, Washington would have appreciated the guarded, two edged blade of the Durham-Duplex because he would have found it nothing more than his own well-loved model made safe.

DURHAM-DUPLEX

A Real Razor—made Safe

Exactly the same shape and balance in the hand that uncounted generations of shavers have brought to perfection—with these extra advantages: (1) a guarded blade that can't cut your face. (2) a double-edged blade for economy's sake. (3) a detachable blade for the luxury of a fresh edge at a moment's notice.

(4) a stroppable blade, so that you don't have to throw good steel away. And it's the longest, strongest, keenest, best-tempered blade on earth. Seven million shavers have found that the Durham-Duplex gives them more shaving mileage than any other safety razor. Get your Durham-Duplex today.

Ladies', Children's and Infants' UNDERWEAR

AT

The D. F. Borthwick Store

NOTICE—Some very unusual values in our special sale of Ladies' Winter Underwear.

I WONDER

What the Army and Navy Association are going to do with the property at the corner of Daniel and Millberry streets, which the Federal Commission released the association to purchase?

Why the land cannot be fenced in if no building is to be erected there and a location that is in no way attractive, right close to the Army and Navy home?

When we will see Market street extended to Newington the along the river front and through Atlantic Heights?

What the weather prophets have to say now?

If they still stick to their prediction of an open winter?

What all the spare passenger crews will do on the Boston and Maine when the revised schedule of trains is put in operation?

Why the efficient boiler laws were not completed and made to cover one and all?

Why such laws did not permit the house sleuths to go into the cellars of the rich and confiscate wet goods?

Why horse blankets are used so much to keep drivers warm and seldom used in the protection of some horses?

How many games Portsmouth will win against Dover in the inter-city series?

If the Public Works Department will comply with a recent request sent in asking that the South Mill Road be flooded to make skating?

Why cider is selling for $1.50 a gallon in some places?

If it was ever decided who had the rights in "Prudentia's Lane"?

Who can take the cranks out of the Coars in the city hall?

When the U. & M. will start something at the North End docks?

Just why the several destroyers at the Portsmouth navy yard were ordered to tie up at the Charlestown station. The real reason might be interesting.

Why the police bowling team went off the sporting ramp?

Comfort Chairs.

You, too, should have one.

In the best clubs of the country; in the lounging rooms of the finer hotels; and in the homes of those who give a care to the more desirable things in home furnishings, you will find real comfort chairs.

What is a real comfort chair? The question is answered before you can ask it. We mean those splendid all-over upholstered fireside, living room chairs and rockers such as are found in plentiful profusion in the store of Markeson Brothers at 64 Vaughan Street.

Why should you envy others who have home furnishings which you would like to possess? It isn't any job to come to this store, make your wants known, select at the most reasonable figures even more pleasing things perhaps than your neighbors have, and what a pride, comfort and satisfaction their possession will bring to you and yours. Investigate; won't you—tomorrow?

TRYING TO OUTDO IN COLORING

The heavens even gave us another white blanket of purity which was deposited over the entire city. Portsmouth continues to refuse to get excited and people are going about their business without fear or trouble.

There are two kinds of all colors in every shade they say, and there appears to be a desire on the part of some one to outdo the other fellow in the extreme of color making.

The Herald has received many communications on this latest of local mix-ups in which various positions are taken. If the authors will file their names we will give the articles space.

THE HERALD HEARS

That there was never so much interest in skiing in Portsmouth.

That girls have taken greatly to the sport.

That the coldest days have not prevented those who like the same from getting out on the snow covered hills.

That the constitutional convention at Concord is expected to last three weeks.

That some of the men in the coast guard service say they are still looking for their bonus money.

That members of the thirty brand have paid big money for phrase in Maine, but the latest rule on a train leaving Portland for Boston on Tuesday beats the record.

That a man with a quart of Canadian Club after some dithering sold the same for $90.

That $16.18 is said to be the limit in some places of the Pine Tree state.

That if a man was entirely destitute of clothing he could purchase the following for $3.00: Suit, overcoat, shoes, socks and union suit.

That a woman in the same circumstances would have to pay $7.24 for a suit, dress, coat, shoes, stockings and union suit.

That a little boys rig would cost $20.43.

That these figures are based on the minimum fair price announced by Federal Food Administrator William D. New York.

That the people of Portsmouth will consider they were warm on Tuesday when they learn that the temperature at Fort Fairfield, Me., was 52 degrees below on that date at 6 a. m.

That the women of Buxford say they are going to make their own bread hereafter.

That they were notified by one of the city's bakers that beginning on Tuesday three-pound loaves would cost 36 cents, and one-and-a-half pound loaves 18 cents.

That the fact that flour has advanced $1 a barrel, and sugar will be at least 50 per cent higher, when the price is fixed, is given as a reason.

That the Chamber of Commerce will hold its monthly supper on Jan. 28 providing the speaker can be obtained with whom they are corresponding.

That a Bloomington, Ill., paper announcing an entertainment had the following: Miss Julia Le Beau of Bloomington entertained with the xylophone. Her father assisted her in many numbers and also played the violin. Both the regular xylophone and one made from tin cans was used.

That the spectators must have heard of canned music but they saw the real thing here.

"THE RUNAWAYS" AT PORTSMOUTH THEATRE

The cast of the musical extravaganza, "The Runaways," is a particularly fine one. It includes several of the best known artists of the community as well as a few of less experience but great promise.

Leading roles have been assigned to Archibald Phylissos, Percy Moulton, Eugene Daler, Charles Trux, William Shumach, Jerry Sheehan, Ella Goodwin, Lucille Jacques and Mrs. Everett Seavey. In addition there will be a chorus of over one hundred local singers and dancers.

Incidental to the plot of "The Runaways" will be songs and dances from the latest New York musical comedy successes, and there will be interpolations from the Ziegfeld Follies, "Hitchy Koo," Victor Herbert's "Elfen," "Chu Chin Chow" and others. Costumes and special scenic and electrical effects have been ordered from New York for the play, and reports from the rehearsals indicate that the popularity of "The Runaways" in other New England cities is indeed well deserved. Thursday, Jan. 29, is the date of its presentation at the Portsmouth Theatre.

Regular meeting of Mercedes Aerle No. 628 P. O. E. this evening at 8.30 o'clock at Eagle's hall Daniel street.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSO. HELD MEETING

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Haven School met in the Universalist vestry on Monday evening, the president, Frederic B. Drew, presiding. Miss Hazel Porter, worker for the Americanization in New Hampshire, addressed the meeting. Following her talk the Lyric Quartet gave selections and Miss Agnes Mellette of Manchester gave readings. A Victrola concert was given and refreshments of assorted cake and coffee served.

The Association, although in its infancy, has an enrollment of 125 members. They hope it will be possible to have the old gun house in the Haven schoolyard for the use of the school and as a community center. The Association is soon to give a public entertainment to raise funds.
